

The hero lives in the end.

But he dies in the middle.

At his crucifixion, not even Jesus' closest followers would have called him a hero. The man they thought was the Messiah was being executed. End of hopes. End of dream.

But then something happened. Three days later, his body was not in its burial tomb. That night, he physically appeared to his disciples. He showed them all of the Scriptures that foretold that he would die for the forgiveness of sins and then rise from the dead.

Jesus is the hero we needed...the Savior who offers us eternal life and a chance to know God personally. To know more, see the feature article BEYOND BLIND FAITH at EveryStudent.com.
