

WHAT will the future bring?

No matter what happens, in the world or in your personal life, what can you draw on to face it with confidence and hope? As your world changes, is there a reliable constant?

Fortunately, we have a tremendous resource: a strong God who never changes...is always reliable, there for us...offers his peace to keep us together when circumstances seem to be falling apart...and is willing to engage in the details of our lives. Find out more...
