

Where will you be living in the future?

It's hard to predict what's ahead in this new millennium. Only God knows for sure. We could have a nuclear age. Or utopia on earth. Or a modern era of world peace as never before. Who knows.

No matter what the future holds, in the world or in your personal life, what can you draw on to face it with confidence and hope?

As your world changes, is there a reliable constant?

Yes, God is a strong security for us.

In what ways? Find out in a feature article called, "Peace of Mind in an Unstable World" at EveryStudent.com.
